Our Presenters:

Philip S. Drew, City Assessor has been serving in his current position since January 2015. He is responsible for all aspects of the day to day operation and long term planning of the Assessing Department, managing the departmental personnel, and conducting assessments of personal and real property for the City of Bangor.

Philip currently, serves as a board member of the Maine Chapter of the International Association of Assessors. Philip lives in Glenburn with his wife Mary.

Jeff Wallace, a graduate of Maine Maritime Academy, has worked for the City of Bangor for ten years. During the first nine years he managed the City's home repair program; said program provided low interest loans to Low to Moderate Income homeowners to complete needed repairs. He has been a certified Code Enforcement Officer since 2014 and the Director of Code Enforcement since April, 2018. He lives in Bangor with his wife Kristen and two children, Zachary and Sarah.

Jason Bird is the Housing Development Director for Penquis. Jason oversees an existing portfolio of over 300 units of affordable housing in the Eastern Maine region and is responsible for developing new affordable housing and acquiring existing rental housing properties..

Before joining Penquis, Jason worked for 10 years doing community and economic development at the municipal and regional levels. Jason holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and a Masters of Public Administration, both from the University of Maine. He currently serves on the Board of the Maine Affordable Housing Coalition.
